

Dear FCC:

I have completely and carefully reviewed the subject petition. My considerable activity on 160m during the past thirty years, including organized contests and much long-distance low-signal DX work, has convinced me that separation by FCC rule-making of wideband and narrowband modes is desirable and necessary. Therefore, I strongly urge adoption of RM-10352 as submitted.

Sincerely, Charles E. Dewey, Jr., W0CD